AOPMC Overview

The 9th Asian and Oceanian Parkinson's Disease and Movement Disorders Congress will take place in Tokyo, Japan from March 21-23, 2025. Further information is available at www.aopmc.org

About the AOPMC

The Asian and Oceanian Parkinson's Disease and Movement Disorders Congress (AOPMC) occurs every two years as a forum to further develop the field of Movement Disorders in the region.

Previous Congresses have been held in the following countries or regions:

- India (2023)
- Virtual (2021)
- China (2019)
- Philippines (2016)
- Thailand (2014)
- Taiwan (2011)
- India (2009)
- Singapore (2007)

Purpose

The purpose of the AOPMC is consistent with the objectives of the MDS-AOS, which include:

- Facilitate communication between clinicians and researchers in the region
- Disseminate updated knowledge about Movement Disorders
- Improve quality of life and independence of Movement Disorders patients and caregivers
- Promote research and facilitate research collaborations in Movement Disorders
- Expose clinicians, researchers and healthcare professionals in the region to Movement Disorders initiatives and in so doing, encourage their membership in the MDS-AOS

Target Audience

The target audience of the 9th AOPMC is clinicians, researchers, and healthcare professionals from the region, including those who have not had the opportunity to attend an International Congress. Among these participants will be many key opinion leaders and movement disorders specialists from the Region. We anticipate 500+ delegates from throughout the Region.

Scientific Program

The scientific program covers the whole spectrum of Parkinson's disease and movement disorders from basic science to clinical practice and consists of symposia, plenary sessions, poster presentations and parallel sessions. Participants will be invited to submit abstracts relevant to the various fields associated with Movement Disorders.

Abstract Submissions

Abstract Submission will open soon. Details and a link to submit are available at www.aopmc.org.

Restriction of Exhibits

The MDS International Secretariat reserves the right to: (a) reject for any reason any exhibit application submitted for the 9th AOPMC; (b) reject, prohibit, restrict or otherwise require modification of any exhibit for any reason; and (c) evict or bar any exhibitor whose exhibit, materials or conduct is determined to be objectionable for any reason. Violation of any regulations on the part of the exhibitor, their employees or agents shall annul the right to occupy space and such exhibitor will forfeit to the International Secretariat all monies which may have been paid. Upon evidence of violation, the International Secretariat may enter and take possession of the space occupied by the exhibitor, and may remove all persons and goods at the exhibitor's risk. The exhibitor shall pay all expenses and damages which the International Secretariat may thereby incur.

Merchandise Sales

Selling merchandise is prohibited at the 9th AOPMC. Order forms may be distributed. The only exception is that book publishers may sell their publications.

Liability

The exhibitor shall be fully responsible to pay for any and all damages to property owned by the venue and its owners or managers, which result from any act or omission of the exhibitor. The exhibitor agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless, the International Parkinson and Movement Disorder Society, its owners, managers, officers or directors, agents, employees, and subsidiaries and affiliates, from any damages or charges resulting from the exhibitor's use of the property. The exhibitor's liability shall include all losses, costs, damages, or expenses arising from, out of, or by reason of any accident or bodily injury or other occurrences to any person or persons, including the exhibitor, its agents, employees and business invitees which arise from or out of the exhibitor's occupancy and use of the exhibition premises, the venue or any part thereof. In addition, the exhibitor acknowledges that the International Parkinson and Movement Disorder Society, the venue, and all other service providers do not maintain insurance covering the exhibitor's property and that it is the sole responsibility of the exhibitor to obtain business interruption and property damage insurance covering such losses by the exhibitor.
